2016 Haitian Entrants Support

Cal OES State Operations Center (SOC) is partially activated in support of this event.

Haitian Entrants, San Ysidro, San Diego County

- Following the tragic earthquake of January 2010 in Haiti, U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement temporarily ceased removing Haitian nationals to Haiti. On September 21, 2016, Secretary Johnson from the U.S. Department of Homeland Security directed that enforcement decisions with respect to Haitian nationals return to the consistent standard practice guided by memorandum dated November 20, 2014 “Policies for the Apprehension, Detention and Removal of Undocumented Immigrants” consistent with the practice for nationals from other nations. Haitian nationals currently covered by Temporary Protected Status in the United States are unaffected by this change in policy.
- There are currently three shelters open for Haitian Entrants: Christ Ministry Center, National City Armory, and El Cajon Armory. The shelter counts reported on 9/25/16 were:
 - National City Armory – 48 persons (+2)
 - El Cajon Armory – 67 persons (+5)
 - Christ Ministry Center – 55 persons (-8)
- Per Cal Volunteers, starting on Monday, 9/26/16, the woman and children currently at the Christ Ministry Center will move to the El Cajon Armory and stay until 10/2/16 in order to allow the church time to clean and better configure the church space for those staying there.
- Pregnant woman currently at the church will move to an off-site location – still to be determined (TBD).
- The goal is to consolidate shelter operations at the El Cajon Armory by Wednesday, 9/28/16.

Non Governmental Organizations

- Alliance San Diego and Christ Ministry Center United Methodist Church continue to operate the two temporary shelters established at the CNG Armories and also the Christ Ministry Center.
- It has been reported that no entrants have been released by Customer and Border Patrol since Thursday, 9/22/16.
- Per Cal Volunteers, Catholic Charities has enough funding to pay for airline tickets for all those needing monetary assistance for transportation. Those who have the means to pay for their airlines ticket will continue to do so. Catholic Charities will be on site on 09/26/16 to provide a payment method. CA AmeriCorps Disaster Team will assist shelter occupants to book flights to depart the shelter by October 3, 2016.
- Per Cal Volunteers, Catholic Charities has enough funding to pay for airline tickets for all those needing monetary assistance for transportation. Those who have the means to pay for their airlines ticket will continue to do so. Catholic Charities will be on site at the National City Armory on 09/26/16 to purchase airline tickets for those traveling to their final destination. All Haitian Entrants at the El Cajon Armory who are traveling have moved to the National City Armory.
- The American Red Cross (ARC) is continuing to work with the Alliance San Diego and Christ Ministry Center United Methodist Church to provide unbranded cots, blankets, hygiene kits, dormitory management expertise, technical assistance and training to church personnel in managing shelters.

WEATHER SYNOPSIS BY REGION

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

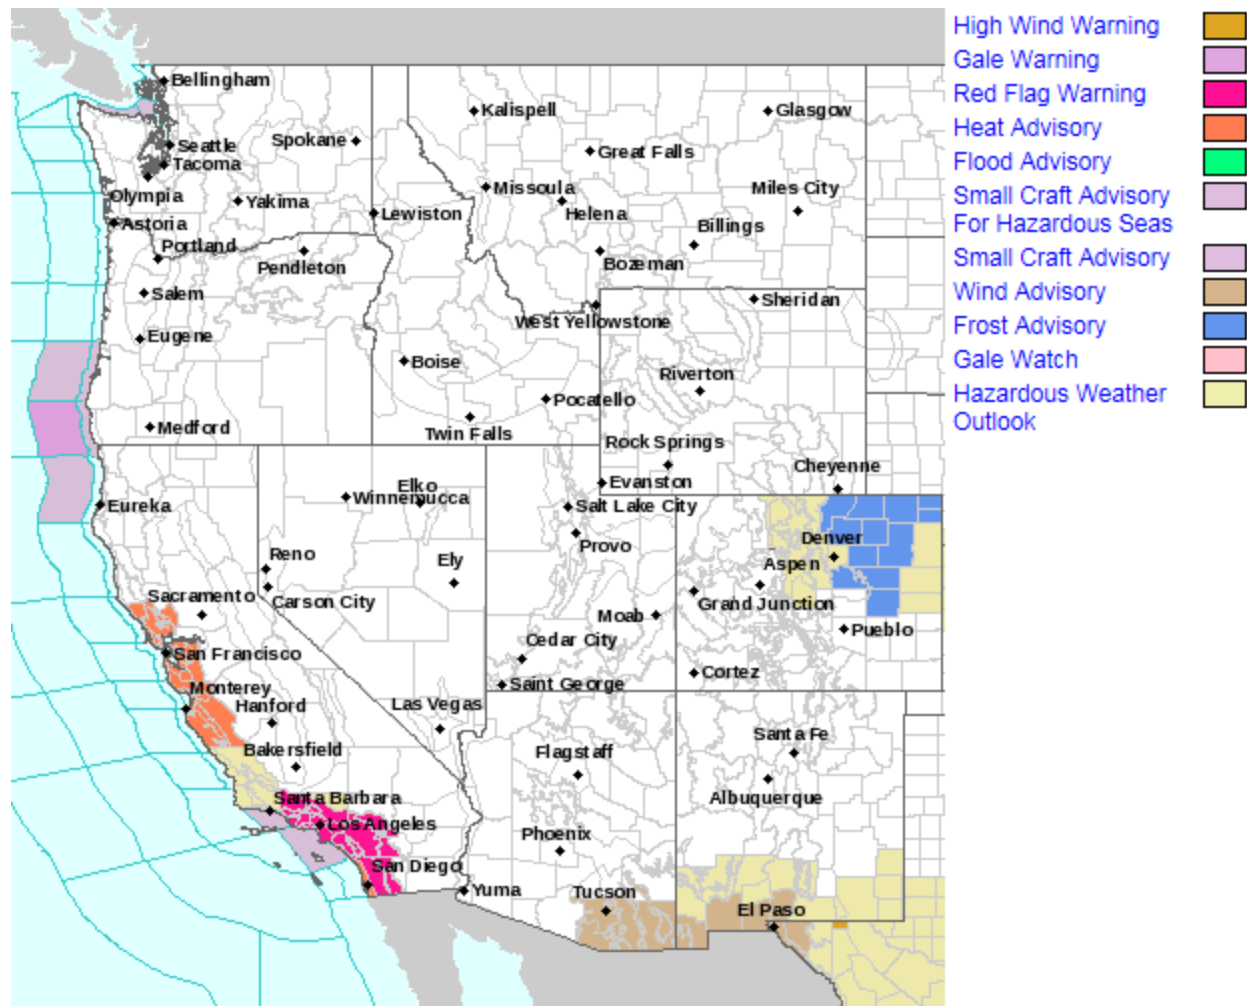

High risk through midnight tonight for moderately strong North to East wind and low Relative Humidity western slopes of the northern Sierra mountains and far southern Cascades, Sacramento Valley, and higher elevations of the Coast Range. Expect low Relative Humidity in many areas away from the immediate coast through today. Strong high pressure will be over Northern California today and linger but weaken some today. Unseasonably warm and very dry conditions will be in place for the next couple days with most areas generally about 10 degrees above normal. The warmest inland areas will be a few degrees cooler today. For the Coast Range mountains, the dry, breezy weather will mostly affect the higher elevations, although other less windy areas there will see rather the warm temperatures and low relative humidity. Starting Tuesday, the high will weaken substantially as a trough approaches the region that will eventually move ashore late in the week. There will be a decided cooling trend and winds will become more westerly again with an overall increase in relative humidity. Outside of a slight chance of a few light showers in the far northwest corner of the Geographic Area Friday through next weekend, no precipitation is expected with that trough.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Strong offshore winds across Southern California through this afternoon. Hot and very dry through today. Surface high pressure over the Great Basin will bring northeast to east winds of 20 to 30 mph with gusts to 50 mph to the mountains and below the canyons and passes of Southern California through this afternoon. The offshore gradient will weaken late this afternoon causing winds to lighten, but local gusty offshore winds will continue across Southern through Tuesday afternoon. Winds will become light Tuesday night and onshore by Wednesday afternoon. A strong ridge of high pressure aloft off the California Coast will cause temperatures to be 10 to 20 degrees above normal away from the mountains and deserts through today. Maximum temperatures will be in the mid 70s to mid 80s across the mountains and mid 90s to 105 in the valleys. Minimum humidity will be in the single digits and teens across most of the region through today. However, minimum humidity will increase to 15% to 30% south and east of Los Angeles County today.

Temperatures will cool 5 to 10 degrees away from the mountains and deserts Tuesday as the ridge of high pressure weakens and a weak area of low pressure moves into Southern California from Baja. Temperatures will cool another 2 to 5 degrees each day Wednesday and Thursday across the entire region. The low pressure area will bring isolated showers and thunderstorms to the mountains and deserts of Southern California Tuesday through Thursday and to the Sierra Wednesday and Thursday. A Pacific trough will move inland across the West Coast bringing below normal temperatures region wide and a deepening marine layer along the coast Friday through next weekend. Strong and gusty westerly winds will surface across the mountain ridges and desert passes Friday afternoon through next weekend.
